Dear Friends,

It is indeed an honour to present you this book as one of the best tools of our series for the students who are facing learning problems like reading, spellings, comprehension in English, Hindi, Mental Maths, Perceptual Skills, Writing and Handwriting Skills etc. and also for those who want to improve these skills of school going children to the best level through this research oriented work of our team. We are well known for our result oriented quality video tools, worksheets and guidance among the parents of school going children.

Our Videos and these Worksheets are highly effective and efficient, as these have direct impact on the English reading and spelling abilities with natural comprehension skills of children. You will find it's use easy and effective to develop speed reading skills of your children. You can see that after practicing these worksheets with our online videos your child's school teacher will appreciate the improvement in your child. Our work is based on multisensory approach of learning at child's own pace in way as the same can directly be used for learning school curriculum. I am thankful to Ms. Richa Tulshyan, B.Ed.,(LD) for her valuable contribution in developing content of this book.

We think that you are the real judge of this book which is meant for you and your child. We request all our friends to please point out our mistakes, if any and send their comments and suggestions for improvement of this book.

With Regards,
